AGENCY ORIENTATION SCHEDULE

The Agency Services Department of the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank offers monthly agency orientations to acquaint agency and potential agency representatives with the Food Bank and regulations associated with membership. The orientation agenda includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Introduction to the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank and Feeding America...the Nation's Food Bank Network
- Membership Regulations and Record Keeping
- Review of the Member Agency Handbook
- Review of the Inventory List and Ordering Procedures
- Workshop and Training Opportunities
- Warehouse Tour (if class is held at the Food Bank – see below)

WHO? Orientation attendance is mandatory for new members and new staff and/or volunteers associated with current members who are authorized to access Food Bank inventory and/or services on behalf of your agency.

WHY? Sessions introduce agency representatives to Food Bank services, policies, procedures, and IRS regulations associated with the distribution of donated food.
