A QUICK GUIDE TO CIVIL RIGHTS

To ensure equal access to our programs, participating entities MUST:

1. Let people know how to apply for the TEFAP/CSFP and how to file a Civil Rights complaint:
   • Place the “And Justice For All” poster where it can easily be seen;
   • Use the Nondiscrimination Statement on all materials and websites that mention FNS Programs;
   • Notify community groups that the Program is available;
   • Provide information when an individual or group requests it;
   • Schedule hours of operation according to the needs of the community.

2. Identify and accommodate language needs:
   • Find out what languages are spoken in your service area;
   • Make sure that everyone knows what to do when a Limited English Proficient client needs help;
   • Provide translated material if there are many people who speak another language;
   • Hire bilingual staff where possible; otherwise, use certified interpreters or contract services (i.e. Language Lines);
   • Do not ask clients to bring their own interpreters.

3. Accommodate persons with disabilities:
   • Accommodate persons with disabilities by allowing them to use predesignated proxies to pick up food packages;
   • Provide clients with hearing and vision impairments the accommodations that they need.

4. Data on race and ethnicity must be collected (CSFP):
   • Explain to clients that collecting the data is required by law, it will not affect their eligibility, and will help to prevent discrimination;
   • Remember that you MUST ask clients to self-identify their race and ethnicity;
   • Clients may identify more than one race.

5. If a client states that he/she has been treated differently because of race, color, national origin, age, sex, or disability:
   • Try to resolve issues as quickly as possible;
   • Refer the client to the Civil Rights contact, or to the address provided on the poster; and
   • Offer the client a Civil Rights complaint form.

For more information, see FNS Instructions 113 or contact FNS MANDO OCR at (602) 250-5061/5123

New required version for CSFP and TEFAP
Title VI and its implementing regulations, Executive Order 13166, and USDA LEP guidance require Federal agencies and recipients (State agencies, local agencies, or other subrecipients), to take reasonable steps to ensure “meaningful” access to their programs and activities by Limited English Proficient (LEP) persons.

(FNS Instruction 113-1, Section VII)
LEP Requirements

➢ Who are persons with LEP?

Individuals who do not speak English as their primary language and who have a limited ability to read, speak, write, or understand English because of their national origin
What is Meaningful Access?

➢ Meaningful access is accomplished by providing competent, accurate, timely and effective language services at no charge to individuals with LEP when accessing recipient programs and activities.

➢ Failure to provide “meaningful” access to persons with LEP could be discrimination on the basis of national origin.
LEP and Program Access

Factors to consider in when ensuring “meaningful” access:

- Number or proportion of LEP persons eligible to be served or likely to be encountered within the area serviced by the recipient
- Frequency with which LEP individuals come in contact with the program
- Nature and importance of the program, activity, or service provided by the program
- Resources available and their costs
LEP and Program Access

➢ State agencies must conduct assessments to determine language profile for their State, taking into account regional differences and updating as appropriate.

➢ Translation of vital documents is required.

➢ Oral translations and notification of free interpretation services is required.

➢ Staff training regarding how to provide LEP populations with meaningful access is paramount (frontline staff).
LEP and Program Access

➢ Language services:

- Applicants and participants cannot be asked to bring their own interpreters
- Children should not be used as interpreters
- Use qualified, competent language resources

➢ Examples of language services:

- Qualified, competent bilingual staff
- Telephone interpreter lines
- Oral interpretation services
- Written language services
- Qualified, competent community organizations and volunteers

Disability Discrimination

What is the definition of disability?

A person who has a physical or mental impairment which substantially limits one or more major life activities, has a record of such an impairment, or is regarded as having such an impairment.

Major life activity means functions such as caring for one’s self, performing manual tasks, walking, seeing, hearing, speaking, breathing, learning and working.

Functions of the immune system, normal cell growth, digestive, bowel, bladder, neurological, brain, respiratory, circulatory, cardiovascular, endocrine, and reproductive functions.

(ADA Amendments Act of 2008)
Disability Discrimination

➢ Section 504 states that “no otherwise qualified individual with a disability in the United States... shall solely by reason of his or her disability, be excluded from, denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under” any program or activity that either receives Federal financial assistance or is conducted by any Executive agency or the United States Postal Service.”

➢ The ADA has similar nondiscrimination requirements that prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability in services, programs, and activities provided by State and local government entities.
Disability Discrimination

➢ There is an obligation to ensure that members of the public are provided reasonable modifications in order to access program information, applications and assistance (i.e. Braille, large print, and audio tape).

➢ Providing qualified sign language interpreters or other auxiliary aids and services for persons with hearing disabilities may be necessary to effectively communicate with these applicants and participants.
Disability Discrimination

➢ As programs and offices modernize, it is imperative that websites, including State and local agency websites, and online application systems are readily accessible to and useable by persons with visual impairments and other disabilities.

➢ In addition, programs must ensure physical accessibility for buildings and facilities, particularly to persons in wheelchairs and with mobility disabilities.

➢ Programs must permit service animals to accompany people with disabilities in all areas where the public is allowed to go.
Equal Opportunity for Religious Organizations

Ensures a level playing field for the participation of faith-based organizations and other community organizations in USDA programs.

Compliance Reviews

Examine the activities of State agencies, subrecipients, and local sites to determine Civil Rights compliance.

- FNS Civil Rights and Program staff review State agencies.
- State agencies review their subrecipients.
- Subrecipients review their local agencies.

Significant findings must be provided in writing to the reviewed entity and to FNS.
There are three types of compliance reviews:

- Pre-Award Compliance Reviews
- Routine (Post-Award) Compliance Reviews
- Special Compliance Reviews
Pre-Award Compliance Reviews

State agencies, subrecipient agencies, and local sites must be in compliance with Civil Rights requirements prior to approval for Federal financial assistance.
FNS and State agencies must conduct routine compliance reviews as identified by FNS Instruction 113-1 and program-specific regulations and policies.

Assess all of the Civil Rights compliance areas.

Sample post-award review questions:

- Do printed materials contain the nondiscrimination statement?
- Is the “And Justice For All” poster displayed appropriately?
- Are program informational materials available to all?
- How are applicants and participants advised of their right to file a Civil Rights complaint of discrimination?
- Are reasonable modifications appropriately made for people with disabilities?
Special Compliance Reviews

➢ May be scheduled or unscheduled

➢ To follow-up on previous findings of noncompliance

➢ To investigate reports of noncompliance by other agencies, media, or grassroots organizations

➢ May be specific to an incident or policy

➢ History of statistical underrepresentation of particular group(s)

➢ Pattern of complaints of discrimination
Resolution of Noncompliance

➢ A factual finding that any civil rights requirement, as provided by law, regulation, policy, instruction, or guidelines, is not being adhered to by a State agency, subrecipient agency, or a local site.

➢ Steps must be taken immediately to obtain voluntary compliance.

➢ A finding’s effective date is the date of notice to the reviewed entity.
Customer Service

➢ Making a difference
  ➢ Treat all people with dignity and respect
  ➢ Answer questions in a voice that is non-threatening
  ➢ Clearly explain to everyone the rules as well as their rights and responsibilities
  ➢ Recognize when stress creates a problem in giving excellent service
  ➢ Recognize that participants have varied needs and (sometimes) few resources
  ➢ Notice when a person feels that they have been treated in a rude manner
  ➢ Develop good listening skills
Conflict Resolution

How is your attitude?

- Always clearly introduce yourself when answering the telephone and do not interrupt the caller.
- Be patient. Give the client every opportunity to explain the issue.
- Be understanding. Of all the communications situations that you encounter, angry clients require the most empathy.
- Do not be judgmental.
- Talk calmly and slowly; in a well-modulated voice (low pitch). This should help relax the person and allow you to address the facts, not cater to emotions.
- Be sincere. Even if you sense that the problem is not the fault of your organization and clearly not your fault, it is ok to apologize to the client for his or her inconvenience; not necessarily the actions by your agency.
- Be aware. Get help if threatened or if violence is possible.
Conflict Resolution

➢ What Steps do you need to take?
  ➢ Remain calm
  ➢ What is the problem? Using information provided, determine what the issue is ➢ Determine a solution. Know your organization’s policy on handling situations and information needed to offer a solution
  ➢ Gain approval from the client. Check with the client for their approval on a solution
  ➢ Make an agreement. You and the client should determine what is to be done, when it is to be done, and by whom and alternatives if needed.
  ➢ Follow up. Personally make sure that the client has been satisfied, and provide feedback.
Customer Service

Service is Effectively communicating with customers, Responding to their needs, Valuing their worth, and Instilling excellence through Courtesy, confidence, and Enthusiasm.
Conflict Resolution

IDENTIFY THE PROBLEM. Identify the problem based on the information the customer gives you.

DETERMINE A SOLUTION. Depending on the specifics of the conversation and your knowledge of your organization, the solution may involve calling the customer again.

GAIN APPROVAL FROM THE CUSTOMER. If the customer does not agree to the proposed solution, it will resolve nothing!

MAKE AN AGREEMENT. You and the customer should determine what is to be done, when it is to be done, and by whom. If it is not possible, suggest an alternative.

FOLLOW UP. Personally make sure that the customer has been satisfied; and provide feedback.
